ABOUT MIKE

Mike Mulkey is a lifelong surfer, Silicon Valley veteran, and first-time author whose faith journey transformed his pursuit of the perfect wave into a story of eternal purpose. Drawing from more than sixty years in the lineup and decades in high-tech leadership, Mike now writes and speaks about finding balance, hope, and Heaven amid life's storms.

His first book, Surfing in Heaven, is a true story about Mike finding hope amidst the daily battles we all face at work and beyond.

SIGNATURE TALKS

Three focused presentations - each built around story, humor, hard-earned faith.

1 | SURFING IN HEAVEN

Finding hope in an upside-down world. Through surf stories, family, loss, and faith, Mike explores how a clearer view of eternity can change the way we live today.

2 | SURFING FOR BALANCE

Why we need to slow down. After 25 years in Silicon Valley, Mike learned that achievement and balance do not automatically travel together. A practical, personal talk about work, family, health, faith, and recovering what matters most.

3 | WWII • THE BIRTH OF SURF CULTURE

How returning servicemen helped transform Southern California surfing. Through his father's Malibu and San Onofre generation, Mike connects WWII experience with the freedom, camaraderie, ingenuity, and adventure that came to define postwar surf culture.

OTHER TOPICS

Learning to begin with the end in mind • How to SLOW DOWN • Will there be surfing in Heaven? • Finding God's plan for your life
